

DEAR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

We are happy to resume our conversations after the olive harvest — a fruitful and satisfying season despite the initial challenges!

To celebrate, as promised, we will host a festive Sunday lunch for all our members:

Just last sunday, we had a convivial meal featuring traditional dishes prepared with our newly pressed olive oil.

The day reserved to members was a glorious day!

20 November, 5:30 p.m.

Talk with Domenico Savini and Silvio Balloni (in italian)

Giovanni Fattori and Casa Corsini: the Story of a Long Friendship

To mark the bicentenary of the great Macchiaiolo painter Giovanni Fattori, Domenico Savini Historian of and Silvio Balloni will explore the deep connection between the artist and the Corsini family, tracing a fascinating story of art and friendship.

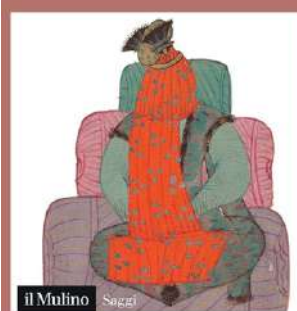

25 November, 6 p.m. in italian

Talk with Giulia Calvi and Carlotta Sorba

Clothing the World (Il Mulino Press)

Historian Giulia Calvi, former professor at the European University Institute, will take us on an anthropological and cultural journey through fashion as a social language.

The event will be moderated by historian and long-time friend Carlotta Sorba.

Colonica a Villa Il Palmerino
via del Palmerino 6
Firenze

Associazione
Culturale
Il Palmerino

25 Novembre alle ore 18

Giulia Calvi
introduce Carlotta Sorba

VESTIRE IL MONDO

Una storia globale di abiti, corpi, immaginari

segue a pag. 10

prenotazione obbligatoria a associazione@palmerino.it

26 November, 6 p.m.

Lecture (in English) with Jacki Musacchio

🌸 Art and Life of Francesca Alexander

Art historian Jackeline Musacchio (Jewett Arts Center) will present her research on Francesca Alexander, an American painter and botanical illustrator who lived in Florence in the 19th century.

Part of our ongoing cycle dedicated to women expats and Florentine gardens.

30 November, 4 p.m. we are guests of

📖 At the literary association Itaca — Via San Domenico 22

Book presentation: La Cabala delle Pergole Torte

A limited-edition art book (42 copies only) published in 2024 by a fine-art press in Reggio Emilia, Stamperia Fratelli Manfredi, inspired by the poetic universe of the Monteverdine wines. With the participation of: Nicola Manfredi, printer and son of Alberto Manfredi, creator of the famous Pergole Torte wine labels and authors Ascanio Bino Vallelunga and Federica Parretti.

This event is part of our recent collaboration with the Itaca literary Association.

10 December, 6 p.m.

Conference: Objects, Collections and Colonial Museums – History and Critical Re-readings

Scholar Beatrice Falcucci will discuss the evolution of Italian colonial collections, exploring their historical background and contemporary reinterpretations.

Introduced and moderated by anthropologist Emanuela Rossi.

Event curated by Giovanni Tarantino.

📅 14 December from 4 p.m to 6,30

🌟 Closing day of Flavia Arlotta's exhibition

Join us for a farewell gathering and small reception to thank the artist and celebrate the success of her show. With Musical surprises

📅 16 December, 6:30 p.m.

🎵 End-of-Year Celebration

We will close our social year with a presentation of a delightful private collection of wine labels by Paolo Antenore, followed by a jazz concert dedicated to Paolo Conte. The evening will conclude with our traditional holiday dinner, a warm moment to toast The end of that year 2025 full of social activities. Participation upon contribution.

