

WOMEN IN ARMIES

IN THE EARLY MODERN MEDITERRANEAN

COST ACTION PIMo Workshop

4th September 2023

University of Florence

SAGAS Department, Via San Gallo 10, Aula Sapienza

Programme

9:30

Registration

9:45

Welcome and opening remarks

Giovanni Tarantino (University of Florence)

PIMo Action Chair

10:00

Experiencing the Military and War

Idan Sherer (Ben-Gurion Univeristy of the Negev)

“All Roads Were in All Directions Littered with Sick and Dead [Soldiers]”: Everyday Experience and Conditions of Service in Early Modern Spanish Armies

Aurelia Martín Casares (University of Malaga)

Elen@ de Céspedes and Catalina de Erauso: Transgender Soldiers in Modern Spain

Sandra Suárez García (University of Granada)

Discovering Early Modern Prostitutes’ Experiences in Mediterranean Armies: Debate, Methodological Problems, and Possible Solutions

11:00

Discussion

Session Chair Ann Thomson (European University Institute)

11:30

Coffee break

12:00

The Army: A Driver of Woman’s Mobility in the Mediterranean

Neil Murphy (Northumbria University)

Women, War and Forced Migration in France during the Italian Wars (1494-1558)

Nida Nebihat Nalçacı (Bilkent University)

No Place for Fairer Kind: Exploring the Absence of Women in Ottoman Military Campaigns of the Early Modern Era

Lëila Maziane (University of Hassan II Casablanca)

Sayyida Al-Hurra: Reflections on an Emblematic Figure in Diplomacy and Warfare in Early Modern Morocco

13:00

Discussion

Session Chair Tülay Artan (Sabanci University)

13:30

Lunch break

15:00

Discussants' remarks and final roundtable

Discussants and moderators

Fernanda Alfieri

(University of Bologna)

José María Pérez Fernández

(University of Granada)

16:00

Closing remarks